Generally speaking, criminality can be grounds for inadmissibly, however, there are instances when it is possible to apply for criminal rehabilitation and apply for immigration to Canada – for specific individual questions, please contact us, prior to commencing your immigration process.