

Although full points are given to applicants who are not older than 49 years of, partial points are awarded for applicants who are older. Moreover, age is not the only deciding factor when applications are considered. There are many other objective and subjective factors that are considered in any given application.